Description

Old cuff, bracelet representing a series of openwork rectangles with floral and arabesque motifs, held and articulated between them by vermeil hinges. The clasp is ratchet with safety chain. Period: 19th century Main material: silver and vermeil, boar's head hallmark. Internal circumference: approx. 17 cm, width: 3 cm. Net Weight: Approx. 39.1g. Authentic old jewel - French work from the end of the 19th century. Our opinion: An old silver and vermeil bracelet with splendid openwork work. A piece of great elegance.
