Hargreaves Ntukwana (1938-1998) was born in South Africa.

He studied Music, and Fine Arts with Cecil Scotties at the African School of Art in Harare and privately at the Artist Colony of Toledo, Spain. Hargreaves was first recognized for his artistry when he designed a cover for the album "Dollar Brand Underground in Africa". He continued to design for Letta Mbulu's record company, and also painted the costume designs for the cast of the multiracial show "Black and White is Beautiful" which toured overseas with Welcome Msomi.

He was the first black artist to exhibit at the Alder
