Description

Table very representative of the work of Théodore Fort, with his favorite subject: horses. Here, two work horses, one harnessed to a hay cart, during the summer harvest. The light is intense, the shadows well represented. A dog sitting beside them intensifies the peaceful and serene character of this scene. Well framed with a wooden frame and gilded stucco. On the back, it bears a label exposing the painter's museum references. Frame dimension: 25.3 x 40.3 cm. Good condition.
