

Silver Stove From The Service Of The Count Of Flanders, Philippe De Belgique, 950 \%

3 750 EUR

Signature : Probablement par la maison Odiot qui fabriqua la plus grande partie de la vaisselle d'argent du Prince.

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Diameter : 22,5

Height : 10 cm

Description

Sumptuous Louis Quinze style sterling silver stove with the arms of Prince Philippe of Belgium, Count of Flanders. In his time the second son of the first king of the Belgians was considered the richest man in the kingdom and left a fortune of 38 million francs on his death in 1905. Which corresponds in current value to a small billion euros The stove weighs a generous 1,850 kg.

Dealer

Ian Panné

Antique silverware and general antiques

Tel : +32 475443619

Essene-kerkplein 5b

Affligem 1790