Description

Raymond Dierickx (1904-1978) "Stations of the Cross with scarecrows" charcoal and pastel 45 X 60 cm mounted under a neutral pH mat 60 X 80 cm. Followed by the Holy Women, Christ falls once again in front of two scarecrows, Monsieur and Madame, at the top of a hill overlooking the city. This theme of the scarecrow is recurrent in the work of the Artist and we find it in many of his paintings. It was for us a real discovery that this beautiful Belgian artist! Even found in leaves and dusty, these drawings, once prepared and framed, reveal all the talent of Dierickx, close to artists like Nicolas Eeckmann, Fritz Van den Berghe, Constant Permeke or other typically Flemish expressionists such as Anto Carte, representing Fêtes , processions, fairs in the great tradition of Flemish painters dating back to the 17th century with the Brughels, but treated with great modernity. Other facets of his work show us his projects for frescoes or large decorations, often exotic, while in the old watercolors, we find a Symbolist vein with an elongated barrel. We devoted an exhibition to it (pdf catalog available by email) with the first ones found, but we have bought many since!
