Description

The Antique Sculpture proposed here is in Terracotta. Earthenware sculpture. A woman dressed in veils.

Original early 20th Century patina. Signed Cormier, French sculptor. The work is signed in its base.

Joseph Emmanuel Cormier dit Joé Descomps (1869-1950), as seen written on the back on the base of the terracotta sculpture.

Cormier is a French sculptor who studied with Louis-Auguste Hiolin. He was a very versatile sculptor, he was also a goldsmith, born in Clermont -Ferrand.

He exhibits regularly at the "Salon des Artistes Français" and makes many of the Art Nouveau objects, including jewelry, sculptures in bronze, stone and ceramics.
