

Allegory Country Bronze Soliflore

145 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état photos contractuelles

Material : Bronze

Height : 8.5 cm

Description

Country allegory, small bronze with red / rust patina forming a soliflore, XIXth century. Two galoshes or hooves around an engraved jug forming a vase, surmounted by a large hat. On the hat, a feather, two flowers and a double cord resembling a lasso: perhaps an Austrian or Tyrolean hat, which would give an indication of the origin of this unsigned bronze. Height 8.5 cm
Superb patina with nuanced and golden brown effects, some deformations at the edge of the hat and very slightly cut feather. Firm price. Payment by check or bank transfer. Colissimo France or Mondial Relay shipping costs 10 euros for France, other countries contact me.
