Oil on wood panel representing "The Deposition of Christ", Italian school, mid-16th century. This painting is a touching testimony to this period of Italian religious painting, both through the dramatic sense and the interiority of the characters, as well as its naïve pictorial touch and the tangy colors specific to the canons of this period. This painting is a rare private testimony of 16th century religious painting that has come down to us. Original frame. Small losses and usual restoration. Private collection.
