Description

A mixed technique painting in acrylics and oil pastels produced in 2016 entitled "Light in the Darkness" by contemporary artist Fabienne Rougeron-Pazzis. The measures of the work are 40x40cm without the frame. Fabienne de Pazzis-Rougeron was born in Paris, she now lives and works in Toulouse. It was initially contemporary tapestry that she practiced at the Beaux-Arts in Toulouse. But in 1986, he devoted himself to painting, training in the studio of Rémusat then, for drawing, with R. Benzaquen and then improving since 2001 within the Arthémésia association. From oil, the material of its beginnings, it evolves towards mixed techniques or multiple possibilities and, to better control the line, practice from 2001 the drawing on living model at the Espace Croix-Baragnon with Mr.
