Description

Sumptuous and large (height 79cm !!) lighting chandelier with 7 lights, in bronze with brown patina, from the Napoleon III period. This magnificent luminaire is composed at its base of a cherry red marble plinth on which rests a baluster-shaped foot adorned with two small ornate sockets. The central shaft is then divided into six sconces, each representing a winged dragon supporting the candlestick. Finally, the whole is surmounted by a caryatid supporting the last fire. The bronze ornamentation of this candlestick is of a rare finesse of execution, the carvings are absolutely sumptuous. Very good quality and thickness of bronze. The set also makes a significant weight ... This candlestick is in good house condition, some small patina wear can be noted on the lower part of the light and
