

Sèvres Biscuit Large Table Mirror XIXth

3 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Biscuit

Description

Description :

Two colors biscuit.

The oval mirror surrounded by a pearl and a laurel wreath is in the center of a skylight panel.

The pediment is a woman's medallion (Marie Antoinette?) Surrounded by garlands and surrounded on either side by cornucopias. The attributes of Mars adorn the bottom of the mirror; a garland of ribbons is mixed with a seedling of flowers and buttons. Two drapes, acanthus and volutes are the low bet of this beautiful mirror.

The work is done in the spirit of Wedgwood, there is no mark despite the quality and wealth of detail. Moreover, Sèvres made biscuits in imitation of Wedgwood jasper. The extreme rarity of this table mirror is due to its material little used for a mirror and in fact to its fragility.

If you wish to receive a video of this object in order to better "understand" it, or detailed photos, do not hesitate to ask us.

State :

Very good state for this type of object. The bottom drapes have been repaired in the past, a few cooking cracks and a flawless repair on a garland. The discretion of the repairs does not require any additional work. Two spots in the mirror
