

Oeil Roman, grand fragment de vitrail du XII ème siècle

430 EUR

Signature : Ecole Française du XII-XIII ème siècle

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Fragmentaire

Width : 8cm

Height : 13cm

Description

This stained glass window although fragmenature, illustrates well the stylistics of the stained glass window at its beginnings, Roman, pre-Gothic. The interest of this piece also consists in the original size of the head. It must have been a central figure on a bay. Both abstract, and with a very marked design, this almost archaeological object is very well base (15x12cm) on a plexiglass sun base which makes it very luminous.

Dealer

Galerie Franck Accart

Paintings, drawings, objects of curiosity and archaeology

Tel : 01 40 20 90 28

Mobile : 06 87 07 88 49

29 rue de Richelieu

Paris 75001