

Small Opaline Glass Liqueur Mug Decorated With A Gallant Scene

650 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Parfait état

Height : 7 cm

Description

Charming little barrel mug in opaline glass and decorated with a gallant scene in a park adorned with a rockery topped with a lantern, shrubs and classical architecture. This small goblet is in the spirit of a "glass of milk" called "Milchglass" but in a smaller size which can make you think of a liqueur mug or schnapps. Bohemian glassware, Mid-18th century period Very tiny shine partially covered by gilding, which seems to indicate an original defect.
