Description

This stained glass window represents a decor of flowers, foliage and architecture, two birds, a butterfly and a dragonfly.

It is composed of rectangles (9.3 x 16 cm) of very light pink cathedral glass painted with "grisaille" and enamel, fired at high temperature.

These rectangles are assembled by H shaped lead, soldered with tin.

They are bordered by a light yellow net in cathedral glass.

The stained-glass window is surrounded by a new brass frame (10 x 10 mm).
