Description

Louis Carrier Belleuse circa 1900. Very large cache pot with handles illustrating the Allegory of Day and Night and celebrating Nature. Exceptional by its size and by the work of colors. These evolve around 2 main scenes illustrating the rising of Day and the arrival of Night. Unique work making this object a remarkable and remarkable testimony of French Art Nouveau and the know-how of Decorative Arts of the time. Stamp of the Manufacture de Choisy le Roi (Choisy France) below the cache pot with initials HB for Hautin Boulanger concerning the manufacture and reference number of the time. Signature of the Artist Louis Carrier Belleuse visible on the outside of the pot cover. Elegance, expertise and incredible quality.
