Description

ISAILOFF Alexandre (1855-1934)

"Rocky ledge in Marseille"

Oil on panel,
Signed lower right,

Beautiful finely made work by the Marseille painter Alexandre Isailoff which represents the corniche in Marseille at the end of a summer day. The artist was able to transcribe perfectly with his colors the atmosphere of a summer day in Provence.

This work is inspired by the technique directly from his master, the painter Jean-Baptiste Olive.

Born in Constantinople, he studied with Regnier
