Description

Small buffet two bodies in walnut with diminutive Renaissance style, the facade opens with four leaves and two drawers molded under the top. The front uprights are fluted and embossed rods. The door panels are carved with foliage and arabesque motifs. Under the cornice, a winged cherub's head adorns the cross. It is capped with a capital and a small niche in the center, intended to receive a statuette. Beautiful proportions for this small two-body. Very good state.
