cloisonné metal potiche, China early twentieth time. Often regarded as a ginger pot, the body is pot-bellied, made of golden copper with deep carvings. Beautiful contrast between the stylized arabesques and the enamelled foliage in polychrome in nuanced tones. The fretel of the lid is in the shape of a dog of Fô, the "guardian lion" in Imperial China. Height 26.5 cm / diameter 21.5 cm Weight about 1.8 kilos. Excellent condition.
The colors are particularly well preserved, the colors more vivid and sustained than in the photos. Firm price. Payment by check or bank transfer. Shipping costs colissimo France or Mondial Relay 12 euros, other countries contact
