

Couple In Carved Wood By Manolo Valiente

850 EUR

Signature : Manolo Valiente (1908-1991)

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Solid wood

Width : 12,5 cm sans le socle

Diameter : 15 cm

Height : 39 cm et 32,5 cm sans le socle

Depth : 11 cm sans le socle

Description

Boxwood sculpture representing an enlassé couple.

Signed Valiente on the back of the bottom of the dress.

Manolo Pérez Valiente, born November 30, 1908 in Seville and died June 30, 1991 in Banyuls-sur-Mer, is a Spanish painter and sculptor.

He participated in 1947 in the first exhibition of exiled artists, Spanish art in exile, in Toulouse, organized by the CNT and the International Antifascist Solidarity, with notably Pablo Picasso, Juan Gris, Francisco Bores, Honorio Condoy, Óscar Domínguez and Antoni Clavé.

Dealer

CLASS Antiquités

Antiquaire généraliste

Mobile : 0622041113

14, chemin de Chantelle

Toulouse 31200