Description

Set of two vintage Cartier Paris vermeil lapel buttons/pins in the shape of a scallop shell, one set with a ruby. These vintage lapel buttons/pins, also known as collar pins or collar ornaments, were made by Cartier in vermeil silver and are shaped like scallop shells. These elegant and discreet pieces were designed to be worn on a jacket lapel, collar, or other formal attire. One button is inscribed "10 years," the other "15 years," and both are set with a ruby, suggesting a commemorative piece, likely created for events or institutions partnered with Cartier. The "15 Years" button is presented in its original Cartier box, a rare find for collectors.

Both pieces are engraved on the reverse with "Cartier Paris" in italics and bear the silversmith's
