Description

Mid-cylinder desk in speckled mahogany slats and mahogany veneer. The sliding shutter opens onto a movable, leather-covered tray. A step of three curved drawers surmounts the cylinder with the particularity of a central drawer with removable writing tablet. The lower body has five drawers on the front. A sophisticated mechanism completely closes the drawers with the cylinder key. This desk has two side zippers also covered in leather. An exceptional piece of furniture for its quality of execution and its very beautiful ornamentation of gilded bronze. DIMENSIONS: 1.50 mx 0.80 m and 1.22 m high.
