Description

Pairs of Art Deco period wall lights in silvered bronze. Neoclassical in shape, inspired by the Middle Ages. The frame is sheathed, with cut sides, with branches taking up the torch of the Olympic Games. The stylized base has an ogive shape, ringed with the base at the bottom. (Height of the base: 35 cm / Width of the base: 9cm) The junction between the frame and the branches is maintained thanks to a shell thread (high relief). The sandblasted glassware is original, typical of the Art Deco period, tulip-shaped. (Height of the tulips: 8 cm) Rare model because it is inspired by the decorator Leleu. Bayonet bulbs. Electricity revised. Easy and ready to install thanks to the two visible fasteners. Delivery possible, not included in the price.
