Description

Description :

Chiseled and gilded bronze, porcelain.

These rare vases are modeled after the ornamental vases of the Louis XVI period. The square base with a reserve of streaks carries a rich pedestal decorated with a frieze of leaves and garlands.

The body is in blue oven porcelain, with its rings molded in relief and gilded and is probably a work of the Manufacture de Sèvres by its quality. The handles are two intertwined snakes that hold garlands of flowers in their mouths.

The collar is adorned with a frieze of laurels. We are in the quality of the great makers of the XIXth as Beurdeley.
