Egoist Art Nouveau Coffee Maker, Pierre Queillé, Paris 18801900

850 EUR

Signature : Pierre Queillé

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Diameter : le pieds 6 cm

Height : 19 cm

Description

Rare "égoïste" coffee pot from the Art Nouveau period in solid silver of the first title from the Parisian workshop of Pierre Queillé. Small in size, it is decorated with plant motifs reminiscent of the decorations used in ironwork to decorate gates and gates. Its handle is silver and two ivory booths protect the user from the heat of the aromatic brew burning inside the body of the jug. It weighs 270 grams.
