Description

This beautiful pair of spring flower bouquets was painted in gouache by Thérèse Guérin (1861-1933), a renowned artist from Lyon known for her exquisite floral compositions. Each bouquet is rendered with great attention to detail, capturing the vibrancy and delicacy of spring blooms.

Thérèse Guérin's work is celebrated for its mastery of color and form, and these paintings are no exception. Her technique in gouache brings a luminous quality to the petals and foliage, making each flower appear almost lifelike. The compositions are harmonious, reflecting the artist's deep appreciation for nature and her meticulous artistic approach.
