Description

Italian school circa 1880 "Young Italian with a jug", oil on mahogany panel 16 X 8.5 cm mounted in a scalloped frame 22 X 16 cm. Monogrammed GF.

The temptation is great for me to attribute it to Giovanni Fattori (1825-1908), whose initials not only correspond to the monogram, but who, moreover, before making his endless military scenes was the leader of the "macchiaioli", the "tachists" which would correspond a little to our impressionists transalpine version, but I do not know the expert and cannot therefore certify it, I will thus be satisfied to sell it as "concentrate of paint" !

Well, that's it, a page is turned: after 11 years of occupation, we are leaving our official apartment in Biarritz. But Nature and I have a horror of
