

A Sterling Silver Oil And Vinegar Cruet, Empire Period, Early 19th Century

1 100 EUR

Signature : Philippe-Jean-Baptiste Huguet

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Length : 25,5cm

Width : 13,5cm

Height : 31,5cm

Description

The cruet rests on four claw feet supporting an oval terrace that's perimeter is finely chiseled with water leaves. The receptacles are decorated with water leaves and supported by three balusters carried by dolphins. The grip is made up of three parts, one part of interlaced dolphins resting on a base decorated with heart-shaped, a column in finely chiseled sheath topped with a swan. A bayonet system makes it easy to remove the cups and cork holders.

Hallmarks:

Paris, 1st title (1809-1819).

Average guarantee.

Master silversmith: Philippe-Jean-Baptiste

Huguet, got his hallmark in 1800.

The glassware is in a very good condition of conservation.

<https://www.proantic.com/en/759063-a-sterling-silver-oil-and-vinegar-cruet-empire-period-early-19th-century.html>

Dealer

Igra Lignum

Art pieces of the 18th and 19th centuries (including Empire)

Mobile : +41 79 694 09 04 FR DE IT EN RU

Belfaux CH-1782