Description

I present it, as I collected it. This model is rare, impossible to find it in the various databases ... Very endearing subject, offering all the characteristics of the beautiful bronze "end of the century" from the end of the 19th century evoking the Middle Ages, very fashionable at the end of the 19th century. 'time. We can appreciate the delicacy of the face and the harness. Beautiful original patina. Note that the base was formerly restored in the right angle of the front. (See photo)
