Description

Mother's and Father's Day before their time ...
Charming pair of colorized engravings, from the very end of the 18th century, reciprocally entitled "Les Bouquets or La Fête de la Grand Maman- Dédié aux Mères de Familles" and "Le Compliment" or La Matinée du Jour de L 'An- Dedicated To Fathers of Families "These engravings represent each of the scenes of family reunions where the children present their compliments to their parents and grandparents under the tender gaze of their servants. These engravings have very beautiful still bright colors, however many pits (mainly placed on the edges) are to be noted. They are presented in beautiful old golden frames and protected under glass. The glasses are also very old and beautifully irregular. Dimensions of engravings only: approximately
