Description

This sculpture of Child Jesus in polychromed wood dates from the end of the 18th century, the beginning of the 19th century.

All in grace and elegance, in a movement of contrapposto which makes it more alive, it is held upright on an animated base which resembles clouds.

The terrestrial globe he held in his left hand is missing and with his right hand he makes the gesture of blessing.

This Child Jesus particularly holds our attention here by the fact that his nakedness is hidden by a fig leaf.

Good condition, slight lacks and cracks due to time.

Dimensions: H 47 cm / W 19 cm / D 20 cm
