Description

Oil on canvas, Seaside with character making a fire in the moonlight ROSIER

Amédée 1831 - 1898. French painter.

Painter of animated landscapes, landscapes, urban landscapes, seascapes. Amédée Rosier is best known and sought after for his navies. He has a classic touch which nevertheless makes his works very beautiful.
The primary quality of his paintings is light. The painter wonderfully manages to convey the atmosphere of the end of days, when the rays of the sun brush the sea or the intensity of moonlight.
These canvases are warm, and refer to the colors of the Italian and oriental landscapes where he
