Description

Pair of large baluster-shaped vases, mounted as lamps, in veined marble and gilded bronze, decorated with bouquets of flowers forming sconces (candlesticks), hold with foliage patterns with windings, friezes of pearls, acanthus leaves and frieze wrapped on the foot, Napoleon III XIXth century. These vases are in good condition and are of remarkable quality. They are very decorative due to their large size. Electricity works. The lamp part is adjustable in height. A note: traces of breaks and restorations on the marble (see red arrows), missing a stem of a bouquet, some slight scratches on the marble, wear and soiling of time, look at the photos.
