"L'écho de la mer" Lucien Alliot

2 200 EUR

Signature : Lucien Alliot

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Width : 14

Height : 36

Description

Bronze statuette with brown-green patina, produced in the first part of the 20th century representing a girl wearing two conch shells in her ears to listen to "Echo of the sea" title of the work signed on the base: L ALLIOT, numbering and mark of the founder Unis France. Some wear of seniority, good general condition. Lucien Charles Edouard ALLIOT was born in Paris (1877/1967) he learned sculpture with Barrias and Jules Coutant, he exhibited at the Salon des Artistes Français from 1896, among his many awards, he received a gold medal in 1920, he was appointed member of the jury from 1934 to 1939, his style, well anchored in the Art-Deco era, was produced mainly between the two wars.

Dealer

Marc Menzoyan

Antique mirrors and artwork

Mobile : 06.85.15.56.58

214 Rue des Pinaises, Saint-Andéol-Le-Château

Beauvallon 69700