

Numa Coste (1843-1907) Portrait Of A Dragon Officer

750 EUR

Signature : Numa COSTE (1843-1907)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Pièces au dos

Material : Oil painting

Width : 38

Height : 62

Description

Numa COSTE (1843-1907) Full-length portrait of a Dragon officer oil on canvas, circa 1870, 62x38cm, signed upper right. Some restorations, parts on the back. 19th century neo-Gothic style frame. Numa Coste, born in Aix-en-Provence in 1843, is a French painter, art critic, journalist and art historian who was a friend of Cézanne and Emile Zola. His works are very rare on the market. Paintings at the Granet museum in Aix en Provence.

Dealer

Galerie Portalis Aix

Tableaux anciens et modernes

Tel : 06 82 06 03 71

7 rue Jaubert

Aix-en-Provence 13100