Description

Large and beautiful portrait of an attractive young woman from the Louis-Philippe period.

The cute poses standing leaning on her velvet padded sofa, wearing a pretty blue satin dress and adorned with her jewelry. All the French spirit of the beautiful romantic period breathes in this work. Dreamy, idealistic and sentimental young girls love to adopt the fashion and taste of Princess Clémentine d'Orléans.

Unsigned work of very good quality, with a successful rendering of materials. It is a master's hand, circa 1845.

Oil on its original canvas restored in good condition, stamped on the back " VALLE: sole pupil and successor of BELOT, rue de Arbre Sec, N ° 3 PARIS " between 1841 and 1845.
