Description

Large and spectacular terracotta bust of an Egyptian woman holding a red marbled jar in her hands.

Luscious polychromy and realistic pose make it a feast for the eyes.

It is one of the largest pieces of terracotta that we have ever offered for sale.

Johann Baptist Schreiner was a sculptor and artist who designed medals.

Schreiner was a pupil of Wilhelm von Rümmer.

From 1894 he lived in Cologne.

Difficult to convey with the photos the presence offered by this sculpture.
