Description

Italian chest of drawers with three drawers decorated with inlays, and walnut briar plating.
The piece of furniture, in Louis XVI style, has small pyramid-shaped legs with light and dark inlaid decorations.
The inlays continue vertically along the leg.
To embellish everything even more we find, on drawers, sides and top, briar walnut.
Made in Italy in the first half of the 1800s, over the years it has undergone some restoration work.
It is in excellent condition with internal and external shellac polishing.
