17th Century, Pair of ink drawings on paper with studies for grotesques, friezes and helmets.

Painter of central Italy of the seventeenth century, signed with monogram "A.M."

Measurements: cm L 45,5 x H 59,5 x 5,5; cm 22 x 33 / cm L 46,5 x H 59 x 5,5; cm 22,5 x 31,5

The pair of sheets, in good condition, is framed by antique frames in carved and gilded wood.

They show some china studies for different subjects. Specifically, the first sheet represents the design of a frieze of Renaissance taste under which are some studies probably referring to a family coat of arms. Below the center is a monogram "A.M."

The sheet is also worked on the back in which are drawn some articulated elements of decoration in
