Description

Created in 1897, this model owes its name to the Château de Marly, a charming resort of Louis XIV. Marly reflects the richness and refinement of a table "à la française", while remaining very current, through the tribute it pays to the plant which constitutes its main ornament. , composed of: 12 knives 12 soup spoons 13 forks, 12 dessert spoons 12 teaspoons, a soup ladle, most of them in their plastic case, plus two cardboard boxes
