Condition : Très bon état
Material : Oak
Width : 183 cm

Description

Art Nouveau sideboard in lightened oak of a very atypical model, probably of Belgian or English origin.
It opens with two front doors separated by a nicely carved frame, and two drawers.
The frame is protruding from the uprights, which lightens the whole. The front uprights end at the top with a perforated part and widen at the bottom in wide runners.
Spectacular copper fittings. In short, a very original and elegant piece of furniture.
