Description

By the famous Parisian silversmith Emile Puiforcat, magnificent sterling silver oblong serving dish. A frieze of water leaves festoons the contours of the dish, the latter supported by four majestic swans, the deployed wings serving as points of appliques. They are discreetly united and held by a thin spacer. Quality, harmony and beauty are the strengths of this sumptuous piece, which can stand out as a centerpiece, with all the elegance and finesse required by the Empire style. Minerva 1st. guarantee (950/1000), hallmark and Stamp of master silversmith Emile puiforcat. Micro-scratches from normal use, excellent condition. Weight sterling silver - Sterling silver weight: 906 Gr. Length: 31, 5 cm. - Width: 20, 5 cm
