Description

Beautiful representation of Rue Surgalle (sic) in Troyes (Aube) one evening in July 1918, as indicated by the artist. A lively evening atmosphere in summer at dusk with mauve reflections with the setting sun flush with the roofs; undoubtedly an evening of celebration with the flags that one distinguishes. At the back, we can see the Saint-Pierre-et-Saint-Paul de Troyes cathedral. On watermarked paper, the work is located and titled on the left, signed and dated on the right. Dimensions: 37 cm x 24 cm watercolor 44 cm x 32 cm with its frame Good condition. Beautiful restored Art Nouveau shell frame and exquisitely wavy vintage glass. First apprenticed around 1885 at the Cristalleries de Baccarat, his birthplace, as a gilder, then engraver of plates for chemical engraving. He developed a taste for
