Description

Oriental scene, certainly Persian on panel, probably of walnut, representing a woman and a child visiting a reclining man. In the background, we see a medieval castle with towers and battlements. We also see an angel and a satyr, a cupid. The paint has never been restored, it is in its original condition with some scales. The wormholes have been treated. The colors are very beautiful and fresh. The pitchpin frame is from the XIXth century. Delivery possible, please consult us.
