Description

Michel Calvet, master painter of colors, the evocation of feelings comes naturally. Because how else to qualify the painting of an artist who fills his canvases with life. With a generous hand which gives ardor and substance to the smallest moments of happiness. The painter does not imprison anything, does not distort anything, but liberates in broad daylight. Because painting is giving without cheating or putting on makeup. Saxophonists whose solos resonate in the canvas with valiant bullfighters, clowns with the mysterious intimacy of women... Everything inspires Michel Calvet. He takes us into the colorful life. The one that should be our daily life. Far from turpitudes and wanderings, a luminous life in which man still marvels at these simple spectacles that the world offers us. Something
