

Large Norman Pitcher On Piedouche With Mesh Neck - Blown Glass From Bresle Valley - Normandy

500 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Glass

Width : 18 cm (anse incluse)

Height : 24,5 cm

Description

Large Norman Pitcher - Blown Glass Carafe -
Clear translucent glass -
Bresle Valley - Normandy glassworks, mid-18th century.
Spherical belly, cylindrical neck with attached threads,
large pinched beak,
hollow handle attached to hot with pliers,
a few small bubbles in the glassware,
pontil below (trace of attachment of the cane of the master glassmaker).
Rather rare shape, good grip of the handle.
Good condition, neither fel nor lack.
Dimensions: 24.5 cm high x 18 cm wide (handle included)
Weight: 760 gr

Dealer

Les Couloirs du Temps - Samuel Collin
Folk Art and Popular Traditions, Regionalism, Curiosity
Tel : 06 81 53 21 70
Mobile : 06 70 45 88 65

Impasse des Ventes
Mézières-en-Drouais 28500