

Cauldron With Chiseled Red Copper Handle, Maghreb, Algeria, 19th Century, Good Condition

Description

Large cauldron in chiseled red copper, originating from the Maghreb, Algeria, from the 19th century in very good condition.

The deep carving represents friezes of plants.

Two very thick copper fasteners support the hammered wrought iron handle.

A copper bead surrounds the perimeter. You will find a cauldron in my gallery from Iran, also from the 19th century.

Dimensions: Height 18 cm, with the handle 33 cm, diameter 26 cm, width 29 cm
