Description

Micro mosaic large cross christ for the grand tour
Very good condition and especially with its original late 19th century christ Height 23 cm Width 13.5 cm The Grand Tour is a long journey in Europe, which can last up to 6 years, carried out by young people from the upper bourgeoisie and the European aristocracy. It is an initiatory and educational journey carried out during or just after studies to broaden interests and perfect knowledge of the Greek and Latin humanities. The main destinations are mainly the cities of Italy, but also France, the Netherlands, Germany and Switzerland. Thanks to the Grand Tour, micro-mosaic jewels or crosses like ours are spreading in Europe. These pieces served as keepsakes for these enlightened art lovers. The workshops therefore adopt as favorite subjects
