Description

18th Century, Large italian lacquered and gilt wood mirror with rocaille motifs
The large mirror in finely carved wood, gilded and lacquered, was made in the northern of Italy (Venetian area) in the early eighteenth century.
It has a central box frame, rectangular and moulded.The frame gives rise to soft perforated vegetal volutes and floral elements of rocaille taste that find the maximum expression in the important cimasa with inverted shell.Antique mercury mirror.
The object, elegantly decorative, can be placed in any room of your home where it will give a lot of brightness and refinement.
