

Stanniferous Earthenware Medallion. Allegory Of Spring. Late XIX °c.

170 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Width : cadre: 27,5 x 27,3 cm

Diameter : médaillon: 21,1 cm

Description

White tin earthenware medallion framed in black patinated wood.

The plaque is adorned with a stamped decoration in neoclassical style.

In the center an allegorical figure represents a young woman dressed in veils and carrying an armful of flowers.

The decor is inspired by the work of Prud'hon or drawings from life by Jean Baptiste Carpeaux.

Frame dimensions: 27.5 x 27.3 cm // 10,83 x 10,75 inch

Medallion diameter 21.1 cm // 8,31 inch

Date Late 19th Century

Condition: good condition. Some micro gears not damaging to the decor.

Dealer

Antiquités Chaussat

Antiques, Furniture Restoration, Expertise. Objects d'Histoires.

Tel : 05 46 56 36 45

Mobile : 06 07 70 83 11

9 rue de Dirac

Thairé 17 290