Description

David Ossipovitch Widhopff (1867-1933) is an artist of Russian origin born in Odessa, poster designer, decorator and caricaturist, he arrived in Paris in 1887.

Pupil of Tony Robert-Fleury at the Académie Julian, he then traveled to Brazil before settling permanently in Paris in the Montmartre district.

As a draftsman and caricaturist, he collaborates with L'Assiette au beurre or Cocorico and follows in a vein similar to those of Forain or Steinlen.

He is also the author of portraits, still life and landscapes.

A drawing by him is kept at the Cabinet des Arts Graphiques of the Louvre Museum, a pastel in the municipal museum of La Roche-sur-Yon and several works by him are in the collections of the
